WEEK OF FORMATION ENDS TODAY

We started the week of Formation under the theme: 'Going deeper in your faith' at the 10:30AM Mass last Sunday with the mass presided over by Bishop Joseph Mary Kizito from South Africa and thereafter with the solemn procession of the Blessed Sacrament through some of our streets. On Monday Fr Marcus Holden, the Episcopal Vicar for the Agency for Evangelisation and Catechesis and Parish priest of St Bede's Clapham Park gave us a brilliant talk on The Holy Eucharist Our Greatest Treasure and reminded us of it being 'the Source and Summit of the Christian life' – according to the Second Vatican Council. On Tuesday Fr Ambrose gave a talk on The Divine Mercy, The Blessed Sacrament and Our Spiritual Growth. We had a Healing Mass on Wednesday and on Thursday we were able to see a film called The Holy Eucharist: The greatest Miracle. On Friday, with great rejoicing for the wonderful graces of God poured out onto the parish we celebrated together as a community the Mass of the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and we were later invited to the Hall for some little nibbles. Each of these evenings was preceded by a session of Praise and Worship.

The response by was overwhelming and we just give thanks to God for all our parishioners.
